

Remember to take your break with safety in mind.....

Remove yourself from the work environment when possible

Be sure to wash your hands, especially if you have been working with any hazardous materials

